GOD'S WORD

"Finally, my brothers, fill your minds with things that are true, honest and just. Think about things that are noble, pure and lovely. Focus on good reports about others. If any good has happened or there's any reason to praise man or God, think about those things" (Philippians 4:8, Clear Word).*

Blindness

We take our eyes for granted. Have you ever played the blindfolding game? The game is fun only because we know that after the game we will see again. But can you imagine if you were blindfolded for the rest of your life? That would not be fun at all. I know a boy who was born blind. Though this boy has many talents, such as playing a guitar, and singing beautifully, and though he always wears a smile, he once told me that he wished he could see just like other boys and girls.

Blindness is not fun. And the devil knows it. He wants to blindfold you for the rest of your life so that you are not able to see the goodness of Jesus. Unfortunately, there are some who have let him do that to them and they don't see the good things God has for them.

ACTIVITIES

Unscramble the last word in each of the sentences below to find some of the things people who are blindfolded by the devil are not able to see.

Not see God's vole _____.

Not able to see God's nksinsde _____.

Not able to see God's cotopretin _____.

Not able to see God's adignuce _____.

The Blindfolding Game

There are pictures of four children below who are blindfolded. Underneath each picture is a line. On each line, write one thing the devil can use to blindfold you so that you don't see the goodness of Jesus.

When the devil blindfolds you and you are not able to see the goodness of Jesus, you will not be honest, truthful, kind, and just. Ask Jesus to help you remain in Him all the time and not to be blindfolded by the devil.

Pray to Him daily to give you power to overcome the devil's temptations and give you the desire to read your Bible and other Christian books daily. With Jesus leading your life daily, He will help you: obey your parents and your teachers, go to church and enjoy being in church, listen to good Christian music, watch only Christian, educational, and character-building programs on TV, be temperate with your cell phone and other media gadgets, and many such things. He will help you so that only good things should fill your mind.
